

Meerim Oboskanova, Bishkek/Kyrgyzstan, is since 2011 EUFAJ Assistant Editor. She obtained her B.A. in Bishkek/Kyrgyzstan and her M.A. in Strasbourg/France. After an internship at the Diplomatic Academy under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Kyrgyzstan, and working in EU projects (e. g. Support to Partnership & Cooperation Agreement with the EU) as administrator, translator and interpreter, she worked after her Master degree for a while at the Mission of the Kyrgyz Republic to European Union and NATO/Kyrgyz Embassy in Brussels (Consular Section); later she became Research Officer in the Center for Prospective Studies of the Kyrgyz Government. Co-author of a book on Central Asian integration (will appear in 2011). Now she is Assistant to the Chief Executive Officer of Chaarat Operating Company (mining company) in Kyrgyzstan.