

We look for interested and interesting people from all over the world – preferably students (undergraduate/graduates) – who would like to have an

with LIBERTAS – European Institute GmbH (www.libertas-institut.eu) on a home workplace basis, with the following features:

- Duration: 3 months (might be extended, if both parties agree)
- The Intern must have Skype with microphone, to discuss 1-2-3 x per week his tasks etc.; he/she can work from at home (however, possible travel in the framework of projects not excluded)
- Part-time internship possible
- Activities may include editing/proofreading of texts to be published, representation in meetings abroad, work on website contents, research and (co-)authorship of articles and course material, Internet research, support for e-mail distribution of journals, contacts with authorities, chambers, business associations, universities etc., according to the respective projects we just have
- Lawyers/law students from the European Economic Area (EU27 + EFTA-EEA3) may be integrated in our EU Law programmes.
- This is a unpaid internship; however, for expenses (phone calls etc.) a lump sum per month can be paid, or recognition honorary fees or participations if anything would be published later
- The quantity of work is subject to a mutual agreement
- The Intern will receive a certificate
- After the Internship he/she can rely to be included in our contact network which may be useful on the long term
- Our working languages are German, English, French. Interns should know at least one of them very well, preferably English. Other language know-how is an asset.

We can take usually one Intern at a time. Applications (with your phone numbers and possibly Skype connection) should be sent to: zahorka@libertas-institut.com (Hans-Jürgen Zahorka)
