

Table of Contents

I.	Introduction	8
II.	Before and after 1953	11
III.	Hostages 15
	A) Background	16
	B) The ICJ's Judgement (May 24, 1980)	17
	C) Iran's "defence"- a valid claim of self-help?	18
	1. The letters	18
	2. The ICJ's response	19
	3. Comment	20
	D) The American rescue mission - a valid claim of self-defence?	23
	1. "Operation Eagle Claw"	23
	2. Legality of the mission under international law	24
	a) Legality under the UN Charter	24
	aa) Article 2 (4) UN Charter	24
	bb) Article 51 UN Charter	25
	Comment	27
	b) Legality under customary international law	28
	aa) "Revival" of pre-Charter customary international law	29
	bb) Post-Charter customary international law	28
	- Legal situation on April 24/25, 1980	29
	- Current legal situation	32
	c) Summary	33

E) Treatment of the ICJ	33
1. Iran	33
2. USA	33
F) Conclusion	34
IV. Oil Platforms	37
A) Background	38
B) The ICJ's Judgement (November 6, 2003)	40
C) American attacks on Iran- a case of self-defence?	42
1. Attack of October 19, 1987	64
a) Actions and Reactions	42
b) Iran's "armed attack"	43
aa) ICJ	43
bb) Comment	44
- Specific intent	44
- Gravity of attack	45
c) "Necessity" of US reaction	48
aa) ICJ	48
bb) Comment	48
2. Attack of April 18, 1988	52
a) Actions and Reactions	52
b) "Necessity" of US reaction	52
D) Conclusion	52
V. Nuclear Weapons	55

A) Background	56
B) Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons	59
1. Basic weaknesses	60
2. Iran's conduct	61
Summary	62
3. The USA's conduct	62
Summary	63
C) "Pre-emptive" self-defence	64
1. Collective action	64
2. Unilateral action	64
a) Article 2 (4) UN Charter	65
b) Article 51 UN Charter	65
Comment	66
c) "New" customary international law	68
d) "Pre-emptive" self-defence as emerging law	69
Comment	70
- Israel's attack in 1981	72
- Invasion of Iraq in 2003	72
e) Summary	74
D) Conclusion	74
VI. General Conclusion	76
Bibliography	78
Table of Cases	88
Table of Treaties, Agreements and Resolutions	89