

Meerim Oboskanova, from Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan, is since 2011 EUFAJ Assistant Editor. She obtained her B.A. in Bishkek and her M.A. in political science in Strasbourg/France. After an internship at the Diplomatic Academy under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Kyrgyzstan, and working in EU projects (e. g. Support to Partnership & Cooperation Agreement with the EU) as administrator, translator and interpreter, she worked after her Master degree for a while at the Mission of the Kyrgyz Republic to European Union and NATO/Kyrgyz Embassy in Brussels (Consular Section). After her return to Kyrgyzstan she became Research Officer in the Center for Prospective Studies of the Kyrgyz Government, then worked in the mining industry as Assistant to the Chief Operating Officer of Chaarat Operating Company in Kyrgyzstan, and later as Project Office Administrator for a project on “Unified Automated Information System for State Customs Service” in the Kyrgyz capital, which was financed by the Asian Development Bank and carried out by Crown Agents Ltd. Co-author of a book on Central Asian integration (will appear in 2013).